THE STALWART CHAMPION OF PROTECTION TALES OF THE GREAT REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 11 (Special).-A delegation onsisting of thirty of the leading business men of Theeling. W. Va., came to Columbus to-day for the express purpose of calling on Governor Mc-Kinley and in this manner emphasize their pleasure over the great victory achieved for Protection. each of the visitors were a badge, on which were the words: "West Virginia Honors the Champion of High Protection." E. B. Hart, Editor of "The Wheeling Intelligencer." in the address introducing the visitors, nominated Governor McKinley for Presidency. The visit proved to be one of great interest, as it marked the first public utterance of Governor McKinley since the election. In responding to the greeting, the Governor spoke as

Mr. Hart and Gentlemen from West Virginia:

I thank you for this cail. I appreciate the good-will and the fellowship which it implies. I thank you for the generous words of congratulation that your chairman has spoken. We respice to-day that our party principles have been successful in a majority of the States in which elections were held on Tuesday, and we confidently believe that in the elections next year to be held in all of the States those principles will be triumphantly approved. The people of Ohio have spoken in emphatic protest against Free Trade and a corrupted currency and against the unjust treatment of our country's defenders. Our victory was aided by many Democrats, who were unwilling to vote for a policy which would sacrifice the best interests of the workingmen and the highest prosperity and patriotism of the country. The verdict in Ohio is an expression of unswerving devotion to our country, its best interests and highest destiny. I shall be glad, when the great State of West Virginia which you represent shall, with a fair and full vote, record liself for Republican principles and policies, the success of which is the success of your rich industrial State. I again thank you, and will be glad to greet you personally.

astic applause, after which he shook hands with each one of the visitors and spent some time in informal conversation with them.

The Republican State Executive Committee has heard from every county in the State and now fixes McKinley's plurality at $1.34. The combined Populist and Prohibition vote will not go above 40,000, and McKinley's majority will, therefore, be about 50,000.

at once to the practice of law as soon as my term as Governor shall expire, which, as you know, is on the 1st of January. My plans have not yet been entirely completed, I shall settle right down to work here in Boston, prepared to work hard, and I hope to have enough to do. I am not a candidate for any office, and have no other intention than I have told you. For more than six years, as Mayor of Cambridge and Governor of Massachusetts, my whole time has been given to public duties, and my own private affairs have been sadly neglected. It is time now that they were attended to, and so I shall get into the legal harness again at the earliest possible moment.

"The Beacon" says to-day: "The very latest political gossip is that Governor Russell will be a candidate for Congress next year in the VIIIth District. This district is now represented by Samuel W. McCall, of Winchester, who defeated John F. Andrew (Dem.), by 202 plurality."

VINDICATING THE LAW IN CAMDEN. Camden, N. Boston, Nov. II (Special).—President Lind was very much in politics this year. Not content with his Music Hall speech asking votes for "us Democrats." he issued a circular letter advising the defeat of Mr. Durant, the Republican candidate in the Cambridge Senatorial district and a man of unexceptionable record. The net result of this little enterprise was that Mr. Durant ran way ahead of his ticket, and received a phenomenal majority.

He said that he did not believe that the efforts which it was rumored the racetrack men of his State would make to prevent the repeal of the infamous bills passed by the last Democratic Legislature would be successful. He had no doubt, he said, that the Republican Legislature-elect would repeal the ob-noxious bills.

BELIEVES HE WAS DEFEATED HONESTLY. J. Irving Burns, the defeated Republican candidate for the Assembly in the 1st District of Westdate for the Assembly in the 1st District of West-chester County, announced yesterday morning that he would not contest the election of John C. Harri-gan. He said that he believed he was fairly de-feated, that the voters used the defective pasters in good faith, and that any contest would be a wrongful attempt to set aside the honest verdict of the people.

Already, also, there is some talk as to their possible deputies. Addison B. Colvin, the State Treasurer-elect, it is reported, has selected ex-Assemblyman Delcour S. Potter, of Glens Falls, as his deputy. Mr. Potter greatly aided Mr. Colvin to obtain the nomination. Whiman J. Morgan, of Buffalo, it is said may be the deputy of James A. Roberts, the Controller-elect. Mr. Morgan is now Collector of the Port of Buffalo, but his successor has been named by President Cleveland. Some of the friends of Verplanck Colvin, of this city, Chief of the Adronatack Survey, are suggesting his appointment by Campbell W. Adams, of Utica, State Engineer, Gilbert D. B. A TRAIN ON THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL ROAD ROBBED IN KENTUCKY,

THE OUTLAWS GET SAFELY AWAY WITH $7,000 FROM THE EXPRESS CAR-COOL ASSUR-ANCE OF THE BANDITS.

Bardwell, Ky., Nov. 11.-Three masked robbers held up a northbound train, No. 22, on the main line of the Illinois Central, early this morning, at Mayfield Creek trestle, two and a half miles north of Mayfield Junction. The express car was robbed of two money packages, one containing $33, addressed to J. S. Titus, Chicago, and the other containing $7,000, in transfer from New-Orieans to Chicago. The express messenger saved the remainder of the contents of the safe.

About 3 o'clock, while the train was leaving Bardwell, five robbers boarded the train. Two of them climbed over the tank and one of the robbers said to Engineer Clark: "Pull out as soon as you can." At the same time one robber grabbed the left arm of the engineer, and one of them suched a Coll's revolver under his ear, ordering output of the same time one robber grabbed the left arm of the engineer, and one of them suched a Coll's revolver under his ear, ordering output of the same time one robber grabbed the left arm of the engineer, and one of them

The other robbers stood on the ends of the bargage and express cars. The negro fireman hid on the pilot of the engine and remained there until the robbers went off.

In the robher's company, and with revolvers close to his head, the engineer carried the train to Port Jefferson, where the robbers got behind some piling and shouted to the engineer to "Pull out fast, old man."
